SPECIAL CONDITIONS FOR MUSIC SECTIONS

A ENTRIES

1. It is the responsibility of entrants to ensure the information on the entry forms is correct. Any corrections necessary after entry closing date or the program is printed will incur an additional entry fee.
2. Competitors may appear twice in any choral or vocal group class. In any instrumental group the competitor may appear twice, provided he or she plays a different instrument in the second performance, e.g. (a) piano, (b) flute.
3. In piano duet classes, a competitor may only appear twice with a different partner.
4. Where there are age groups provided for classes which are similar in nature, music competitors may compete in more than one class.
5. The Committee reserves the right to cancel, combine or halve the prize money of any section that receives fewer than three entries.

B THEATRE RULES

6. All electrical items for use in the theatre and dressing rooms must be tagged by a certified electrician. This is the responsibility of each school or teacher and failure to comply will result in the appliance being confiscated.
7. A sound system is available for use at the Princess Theatre and Earl Arts Centre. At the request of the Theatre Staff all music must be on CD. There must be only one track on the CD and must be clearly labeled with the Competitor's name, Competitor number and Class number.
8. No rehearsals will be permitted in the theatre during the week of the Music sections.
9. The lift backstage at the Princess Theatre cannot be operated during a session. Please ensure that any props, or equipment are at the theatre half an hour before the commencement time of the session involved. All props must be named. They must be removed from the stage area after use and not stored backstage.

C CHORAL WORK

9. Choir Conductors are advised that the Curtain will only be used at the commencement and end of a particular class and not between each item. Choirs will enter and leave the stage area with the front curtain open.
10. The conductor of any choir may be a professional. Conductors must not sing with their choir.
11. Unless a special arrangement is made with the Committee at the time of entry, Choirs must appear in the order listed in the program.

D INSTRUMENTAL WORK

11. Competitors note that Time Limits for Instrumental Items include setting up of instruments on stage. Time Limits will be strictly enforced. Failure to comply with time limits may result in a penalty.
12. Instrumental work may be accompanied.

E PERFORMANCE RULES

13. Teachers and Conductors must advise on the entry form the number of competitors in choirs and instrumental groups.
14. Schools must ensure that sufficient supervisory staff accompany their students to the theatre.
15. Competitors must provide a copy of their music for the use of the Adjudicator along with the completed Form 1 and 2 found in this schedule. This must be in the hands of the Secretary by the commencement of the session. Failure to comply in this respect may disqualify the competitor. All bars must be numbered. Originals will be handed back to the competitor and photocopies will be destroyed.
16. In "Own Selection" classes no competitor shall be allowed to use the same piece with which he or she has won a first prize at a previous competition held by this Association.
17. Solo Vocal Competitors in music sections who hold music or manuscript, including those accompanying themselves, may not be assessed.
18. No prompting or assistance of any kind, including live props, may be rendered to a competitor in any class during a performance. Any infringement of this may render the competitor liable to disqualification.
19. A vocal solo may only be accompanied by instruments, not other voices; for example, piano, guitar or non-vocal backing track.
20. Every care will be taken for the competitors' safety, but the Launceston Competitions Association will not be responsible for any injury sustained by a competitor during the competitions. Teachers and/or Parents should be responsible for basic first aid equipment.
21. Authority of the Stage Manager. Competitors, teachers, parents and others associated with competitions must obey the directions of the stage Manager when in the area of the stage.
